To Whom It May Concern:

Darigold is honored to write this letter of recommendation for May Palmer. She is the absolute "Queen of Ivory Soul". There is no one else like her. Her passion and soul are expressed in every move she makes. Her performance exemplifies this virtue.

May performed at the Darigold Consumer Products Sales meeting on December 1st 2009, at the Tulalip Resort Casino, Tulalip Washington. Her energy and excitement were demonstrated from the very first song and continued through the night. Her fun and engaging style was enjoyed by guests as she worked her way through the room singing directly to people at their table.

We gladly recommend May Palmer for your future events.

Sincerely,
